MARIA IRENE FORNES, CARMEN FORNES,
also known as
Carmen Collado de Fornes

On May 2, 1974, T-1 advised that Maria Irene Fornes and Carmen Fornes, also known as Carmen Collado de Fornes, were passengers aboard the Cubana Airlines flight from Mexico City, Mexico, to Havana, Cuba, on April 19, 1974. Maria Fornes possessed U.S. Passport K970668; she was described as 43 years of age, born in Havana, Cuba, single, resident at 1 Sheridan Square, New York City. Carmen Fornes was indicated to be 83 years of age, born in Havana, Cuba, also resident at 1 Sheridan Square, New York City, and possessor of U.S. Passport K1047266. T-1 advised there was no indication that either of these two individuals, believed to be mother and daughter, possessed Mexican re-entry permits which would allow them, as U.S. citizens, to return to Mexico from Cuba. T-1 stated that Mexican re-entry permits are issued to U.S. citizens who travel to Cuba when their U.S. passports are validated by the State Department for such travel.

Re New York letter and LHM January 3, 1975.

On February 15, 1975, the [redacted] [redacted] Rome, Italy, advised that a review of its records disclosed the following:

b7D

The decapitated body of a woman was found at Lago Castel Gandolfo, Italy, on July 12, 1955. At that time the body was identified as that of ANTONIETTA LONGO. During the course of the investigation concerning the finding of the body, it was necessary to develop information concerning individuals of the feminine sex, both Italian and foreign, who had left Rome, Italy, for unknown destinations during the period preceding the crime. One of the names which came up during that phase of the investigation was that of MARY INES FORNES, born May 14, 1930, in Cuba, U. S. passport No. 371381 (rather than 371281 as set out in reLHM), issued May 13, 1954, at Washington. Investigation disclosed that FORNES was lodged at a youth hostel in Rome from June 16, 1955, to July 2, 1955, at which time she departed for an unknown destination. [redacted] noted that during this phase of the investigation leads were set out to various countries. In response to those leads, on September 16, 1957, Interpol, Paris, France, advised that FORNES was residing in Paris, having come from Italy.

In view of the foregoing, Rome is taking [redacted]
further action in this matter, UACB.
